

Thesis embargo form

This form is only to be in case you request a temporary embargo on public access, for reasons of confidentiality and/or ownership of the findings and/or sensitive information, or due to reasons of confidentiality and/or ownership of the findings by and information of external entities or private companies that have contributed to the realization of the research.

I, the undersigned _____ Student ID no. _____

Do not authorize the University to put the deposited thesis onto the digital "Morethesis" archive network with open access to the complete text.

Specify the reason:

- For reasons of confidentiality and/or ownership of findings and/or sensitive information.
- For reasons of confidentiality and/or ownership of findings by and information of external entities or private companies that have contributed to the realization of the research work connected to the degree thesis.
- A protective procedure (a patent application) has been or is being made.
- For reasons of prioritization of the research (by prior agreement with third parties)
- For editorial reasons
- Other (please specify):

The complete text of the thesis will be publicly accessible:
(tick the preferred opening date for consultation)

- after 12 months from the date of deposit
- after 18 months from the date of deposit
- after 3 years from the date of deposit

ATTENTION!! Whatever the choice on the accessibility of the thesis, the following data will be published online after about 40 days from graduation: name and surname of the graduate student, title of the degree thesis, keywords, abstract, name and surname of the supervisor and any co-supervisors.

Thesis author' signature
